

Textschablone für ein einfaches QSO zum Ausfüllen

Wir rufen CQ

1. CQ-Ruf

CQ 15, CQ 15, calling CQ 15 meters. This is _____ calling.
_____, _____, _____ calling CQ 15 meters. Hello CQ, CQ, CQ 15 meters. This is _____ calling. _____, calling CQ 15 meters and standing by for a call.

2. Vorstellung

_____, this is _____.
Good morning, old man, and thank you for coming back to the call. The report for you ist _ and _. The name here is _____, _____, and the location is near _____, that's _____. So, I hope you are copying me all right. Back to you. _____, this is
_____.

3. Stationsvorstellung und Verabschiedung

_____, _____ returning. I got everything OK.
I am using a _____ with _____ Watts output into a _____.
That's the story here. I will QSL hundred percent via the buro. Thank you very much for the short QSO. I hope to meet you again soon. 73s, all the best dear
_____!

_____, this is _____ standing by for your finale.

Wir antworten auf eine CQ-Ruf

1. Antwort auf CQ-Ruf

_____ this is _____, _____ is calling.

2. Vorstellung

_____, this is _____ right back. Solid copy _____, you are __ and __, a fine signal this morning. The name here ist _____, _____, and I am located in _____. I am using a _____ with _____ watts output. The antenna is a _____. So, that's the working condition on my side. _____, this is _____.

3. Verabschiedung

_____, _____ returning. OK _____, I got everything OK. I will QSL via the buro too. So a very good morning to you _____ and thank you very much for the contact. 73, see you further down the log! _____, this ist _____ off and clear.